

Leader as Coach

Discover how to improve your performance and your teams

As leaders we each bring a uniqueness to our work. We need to know what works best for ourselves and our organisation, and how to use this to coach and support others as they explore the relationships they have with one another and with the organisation.

Our own level of development determines how well we can lead, work with unpredictable change, and find fulfilment in our work and personal life.

Leader as coach assists the alignment of goals and supports the collaborative direction of the individual, the team and the organisation.*
