

Trouble Shooter

Manage and benefit from the process of creative conflict resolution

An effective Trouble Shooter works to transform the experience of workplace conflict by fostering a deep and clear understanding of all parties involved within a conflict. They display skills for negotiating and resolving conflict through the use of interactive performance techniques, exploring issues and investigating solutions to improve communications and relationships to open the way for greater creativity and productivity.

Handled well and with all parties' needs and views held in a place of respect, conflict can be effective and very stimulating as a means of provoking productive change.
