

Prof. Paul Makeham

Senior Associate

Expertise:

- Leadership Development
- High Performing Teams
- Experiential Learning
- Cultural Development
- Authentic Communication
- Stakeholder Engagement
- Applied Theatre
- Arts Based Practice
- Coaching and Mentoring
- Transformational Change

Qualifications:

Doctor of Philosophy - "Discourses of Landscape in Contemporary Australian Drama" (University of Newcastle)

BA Honours (1st Class) "Community, Art & Patronage" (University of Newcastle)

For over 30 years, Paul has been dedicated to supporting human development through his work in senior academic leadership and management, research and higher education, and corporate learning and development.

Paul is passionate about supporting leadership and professional development using applied theatre and creative forms and techniques.

Prior to joining Performance Frontiers, Paul led a prolific career at QUT. Among his varied leadership roles, Paul made significant contributions as Director of Corporate Education (Creative Industries), helping to advance the university's transdisciplinary strategy for corporate and professional education. He has extensive experience in the design and delivery of courses, workshops and seminars, with a particular focus on Creative Leadership and Authentic Communication.

Paul's creative approaches have been developed through working across diverse projects as a producer, writer, presenter and performer. He served on the La Boite Theatre Company Board for eight years, including four years as Chair. Paul is an Adjunct Professor in the School of Creative Practice at QUT.